

ShoeString
GENEALOGY

See
www.ShoeStringGenealogy.com for more forms & charts

Citation Properties Reminder

There is nothing to fill in here. This is just to help researchers include all the needed properties of a citation. Often we're so excited to find something, we forget the details of documentation.

Original Record	Microfilm	Book	Periodical	Website
Name of document	Film, fiche, or digital document number	Name of author, editor, or compiler	Name of author or contributor	Organization or individual operating website
Creation date of document and when recorded	Date of filming	Title of book, volume number, or edition	Title of article	Name of web site
Repository where document was filed	Organization which filmed or digitized the document or book	Where published	Name of periodical	Web address (URL) of page
Title of Book and Volume number in which the document is found, or the title of the file, box or document number	Address of filming organization	Publisher	Volume and Issue number or section and column number	Creation date or last update
Address of repository or individual in possession of document	Grab information as listed under Original record, Book, or Periodical	Copyright date, use most recent if it is a reprint or revision	Page number	Grab information as listed under Original record, Book, or Periodical
		Dewey decimal or U.S. Library of Congress number		Date you found the web site (they are prone to disappear)
		Page number		